CONFERENCE ON TO END RAIL STRIKE

But New York Dispatch Says
Only A Few Roads Are Concerned In Negotiations

(By Associated Press)

Chicago, Sept. 6.—Seven representatives of the striking shop-crafts are declared by John Scott, secretary of the railway employes' department of the American Federation of Labor, to be in Baltimore today for a conference with the railway executives on a proposition to end the strike. Scott intimated the proposal on which it is hoped the strike will be halted is prepared but he would not outline it. Should the meeting produce a favorable result, Scott said the policy committee of the unions will be summoned to meet here.

Only A Few Roads Is Involved
(By Associated Press)

New York, Sept. 6.—If any conference is being held in Baltimore between the strikers and railway heads, it involves only a few individual roads and does not look toward settlement of the strike on a nation-wide basis. It was said today at headquarters of the association of railway executives.

ROBINSON ATTACKS RAIL INJUNCTION

(By Associated Press)

Washington, Sept. 6.—Senator Robinson, democrat, of Arkansas, in the senate today declared the injunction against the striking railway shopmen violates both the constitution and the Clayton anti-trust act. He declared the alleged advantage derived from the injunction order is more than offset by the permanent impairment of the reputation of the federal judiciary for integrity and impartiality which might result from such unwarranted assumption of authority.

Labor Leader Wants
Attorney General Impeached

New York, Sept. 6.—In a telegram today John Dowd, chairman of the general strike committee of eastern shopmen, urged Senator Borah to initiate impeachment proceedings against Attorney General Daugherty and Federal Judge Wilkerson of Chicago, on the ground the strike injunction granted by the latter at the former's request was in violation of the constitution.

Rumors Of Settlement

Washington, Sept. 6.—Just at the moment when rumors of an impending settlement of the railroad strike is in wide, though controverted circulation, W. H. Johnston, president of the International Association of Machinists, one of the largest of the seven railway unions now on strike, took occasion to completely disappear. Added to the mystery was the fact that Johnston conferred with Secretary Hoover yesterday and it is reported he informed Hoover that settlement prospects were bright. It is vigorously denied that Johnston is attempting to evade process servers armed with copies of the Chicago injunction.

LOCAL MASONS INVITED TO TWO CELEBRATIONS

Members of the Richmond chapter and blue lodge here have been invited to be among the guests at an all day picnic which is to be given by Berea Chapter, No. 151, at Boonesboro Saturday. A large trip to Valley View will be a feature of the program and a delightful day is expected.

Local Masons have also been invited to attend a reception and celebration in honor of the 50th anniversary of John W. Lancaster as secretary of Lexington lodge F. & A. M. This will be held at the Phoenix Hotel on September 7th and will be made a most enjoyable occasion. Mr. Lancaster is well known to many local Masons who will take pleasure in doing him this honor.

LAFOLLETTE KICKS GOAL ON GANFIELD

(By Associated Press)

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 6.—What promises to be the largest majority ever given a candidate in a Wisconsin primary is being rolled up today by Senator LaFollette as a result of yesterday's primary. With more than half the precincts reported it is indicated his majority will be 150,000 over W. A. Ganfield, of Waukesha, in the contest for the republican United States Senatorial nomination.

VARDAMAN BEATEN IN MISSISSIPPI

(By Associated Press)

Jackson, Miss., Sept. 6.—Revised official returns from 75 of 82 counties in Mississippi show that Hubert Stephens is leading James K. Vardaman by 10,870 votes for the democratic nomination for United States Senator in yesterday's primary.

JACK'S CREEK FARM SELLS FOR $28,000

Another Madison county farm sold at a good figure this week when Chenault and Stone sold for Tilden Parrish his farm on the Jack's Creek pike for $28,000. The consideration is said to have been equal to cash. This place contains 130.45 acres, and possession will be given January 1st. The farm is handling a lot of good farm transactions and is giving satisfaction to all parties.

BALLARD SCHOOL HEAD CITED BY COLVIN

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 6.—Court action looking to an investigation of the affairs of W. A. Anderson, former superintendent of the Ballard county schools will be resumed today by George Colvin, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, he announced here today. The announcement was made by W. R. Threlkeld, State School Inspector, who had filed a report with the State Superintendent, stating that Mr. Anderson had refused to produce his records for examination as required by law.

Mr. Threlkeld said that he had made an engagement with Mr. Anderson, which the latter failed to keep, and that later the former superintendent, who went out of office January 1, had flatly refused to produce his records, and said that he was "grossly insulted, raging like a wild beast and frantic in the futile passion of a spoiled child."

The debt of the Ballard county schools, June 3, 1922, was $122,519.46, all except about $22,000 of which was contracted under Anderson's administration, the inspector said. He charged extravagance against the former superintendent, saying that members of the old County Board of Education had told him that the income of the schools for the 1921-22 would be $125,000, whereas it was only $99,508.43.

Girl Disfigured For

STONE REPORTS SALE OF MORE POOL WEED

800 New Contracts For Membership In Association Reported
—Many From Adair

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 6.—On the eve of the September meeting of the Board of Directors of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association, James C. Stone, president and general manager, reported the sale of another considerable lot of tobacco, but the name of the purchaser was withheld as well as the actual amount sold.

The directors met at the offices of the association Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock and probably will be in session all day, considering routine business.

Nearly 800 contracts were received at the offices of the field service division of the association, 293 of them being brought from Adair county where Chairman G. R. Reed and his workers have been making an effective campaign. About 75 contracts besides these have been signed in Adair county, E. M. Mansfield, of Carrollton, who has been assisting in that county, said.

The laying of the cornerstone of the co-operative receiving plant at Columbia was made the occasion for a vigorous drive for members and the tobacco growers of the county responded. Mr. Mansfield said Chairman Reed and his organization had been actively engaged in convincing the growers of Adair that their best interests lie in the co-operative system of selling.

Secretary H. Lee Early has received reports from most of the counties of the nominations made Saturday for delegates to the district meetings which will elect the new members of the Board of Directors at the general election September 16, and he will prepare the official ballot of this election this week.

In some of the counties resolutions expressing appreciation of the growers of the services of Judge Robert W. Bingham and Aaron Sapiro, and the official conduct of President Stone, Secretary Earley, Director of Warehouses Ralph M. Barker, Vice Presidents James N. Kehoe and Bush W. Allen and John B. Winn of the executive committee, were adopted.

In most instances it was said at the offices of the association, the present members of the Board of Directors are without opposition for re-election. Director of Warehouses Barker and Vice President Mlin went to Stanford on business connected with the establishment of the new receiving plant there.

Lightning Kills Couple

Middlesboro, Ky., Sept. 6.—Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Thompson, of Shawnee, Tenn., were killed by lightning on the porch of their Tuesday. Thompson's mother, and his babe, in another part of the house, were shocked. Thompson formerly lived at Hagan, Va.

Unique Way To Suicide

Danville, Sept. 5.—Wm. Stagner, 73, a farmer, placed three sticks of dynamite under his body at his home near Burgin and exploded the charge. His head and shoulders were blown off. Stagner had been worrying a physician says, but refused to disclose what the cause of his trouble was. Stagner went off from building at his home into a strawberry bed and lighted the fuse. His wife was awakened by the detonation.

Like Clouds Across A Summer Sky

Foretelling the dreadful storm, are the symptoms of women's diseases which point the way to physical and mental breakdown. The nervous irritability, the backache, the dragging pains, are not only hard to endure, but they bring certain knowledge of collapse unless something is done to relieve the sufferer. There is one standard remedy which has shown the way out for nearly fifty years. The women who have "come back" through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound present an argument stronger than words could ever be.

COLVIN DEMANDS CASH FOR STATE TEACHERS

When State Treasurer Wallace
Tries To Get Him To Use
Interest Bearing Warrants

(By Associated Press)

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 6.—State Superintendent of Public Instruction George Colvin and State Treasurer James A. Wallace today locked horns over the condition of the state treasury as it relates to moneys credited to the school fund. Wallace suggested to Colvin that interest bearing warrants be issued to cover $385,000 of state funds due on Saturday to pay teachers of the state. Colvin flatly refused to accept warrants and Wallace told him he could not get the money otherwise. Some of the school funds Colvin said, has been used to tide over the general fund until its payments come in.

"The school fund," Colvin said, "should be in the treasury and must be procured." He added he did not propose to issue interest bearing warrants to teachers and have them made victims of claim shavers.

HEARD ABOUT TOWN

W. H. Habbitt and W. S. Wetters, of the firm of Escott, Barnett and Company, of Louisville, are auditing accounts of Eastern Normal School during the vacation period.

Prof. G. D. Smith, of the Science Department of the Eastern Normal, was a recent visitor in Booneville where he spoke in the interest of the Achievement Contest in which the county is entered. He was speaking with Mr. Reinhart, editor of the Berea Citizen.

Few people in this county who did business at any of the four Richmond banks Monday stopped to think what was being done for them. Very few banks in the state stayed open and possibly none others. The local banking houses gave up a holiday to serve the court day crowd.

The plumbers of this city have organized a baseball nine under the leadership of Wash V. Dykes and will play their initial game Sunday. It is scheduled with the fast nine from Fort and is to be played at the diamond at Boonesboro.

This is certainly a great year for fruits and vegetables. Several growers have brought prize winners along this line to the office of the Daily Register within the last few days. W. O. Anderson, of the Paint Lick section, has placed some army beans on display which are a good deal longer than the arm of a full grown man. Mr. Anderson says that these beans are just as tender as those of ordinary length and will cook just as well.

Fleming Rucker, of Dreyfus, has brought an apple to this office which he grew, weighing a pound and three ounces. He has four trees of them which are loaded with fruit.

Capt. Sam McGinn, popular conductor on the L. & A., has just sold his home in Irvine to Alex Black well known here. The price he received for the property was $4,650. Capt. McGinn says he will probably buy another piece of property there. His many friends here wish he'd find it convenient to locate in Richmond.

Mrs. Gideon Taylor has some yellow tomatoes on display that are "whoppers."

The following telegram from Asheville, N. C., will be read with deep regret by his many friends in Richmond: Word was received yesterday that Leonard B. Shouse, president and manager of the Lafayette Hotel, is seriously ill in Asheville, N. C. According to a telegram received by Dr. David Barrow, Mr. Shouse has been stricken with acute appendicitis. Dr. Woolfolk Barrow left on the 9:30 Southern train to attend him. Mr. Shouse has been at Asheville for the last several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McCord are happy over the arrival of a beautiful little girl who was born Saturday, Sept. 4th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hise on the Big Hill road.

TWO MEN PLACED IN MADISON JAIL

By Sheriff Elmer Deatherage
Who Are Wanted By the Cleveland Police

John Lore and Nelson Cardigan, both of Cleveland, Ohio, are in the Madison county jail awaiting the arrival of a representative of the Cleveland police who will take them back to Cleveland. They were arrested by Sheriff Elmer Deatherage here Saturday night while driving a car, upon which was an Ohio license. Mr. Deatherage soon was in touch with the Ohio authorities who stated that the car was a stolen one and that men were wanted in Cleveland.

About 6:30 o'clock Saturday evening Sheriff Deatherage received a telephone message from Fred Hardin at Waco, saying that three men were in a touring car headed for Richmond at a terrific speed and shooting their pistols as they went. Mr. Deatherage climbed into his Ford coupe and started to head them off. Unable to find one of his deputies, he took Policeman James Turner with him. When the officers arrived at the bridge near the Richmond reservoir, where they intended to head off the car, the men came down the hill just in time to prevent being stopped. They did not halt at the officers' commands but kept right on toward Richmond at a rapid rate. The officers were right after them in the coupe and had to "burn the wind" to keep the other car in sight.

When the city limits were reached, Sheriff Deatherage kept right on at his speed while Lore and Cardigan had to slow down for fear of arrest. This enabled Sheriff Deatherage and Turner to catch the men on Irvine street and they were soon placed in jail. The sheriff states that they threw their pistols away while going toward town.

Goebel Baker, of Hazard, was the third occupant of the car but was released as there was no charge against him. The other two men were arrested for speeding and placed in jail before Mr. Deatherage knew that they were wanted in Cleveland. The sheriff says that the car had been recently painted and five new tires put on. Lore is said to be a former pugilist. Mr. Deatherage also states that they were in possession of a black jack and several suit cases.

Will White is also in jail here. He escaped from a road crew working in this county some time ago and was recently captured in Corbin and returned to jail here. He made his escape about six weeks ago.

Sate Bankers Urge Cut In Assessment of Bank Stock

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 6.—Urging that bank stock be assessed at 80 per cent of its fair cash value, a delegation representing state bankers who have brought suit in several counties to have the assessment of bank stock reduced to an equality with the valuation placed on property generally, appeared today before the state tax commission. In the delegation were Kennedy Helm, associate counsel; Arch Davis, secretary of the association, both of Louisville, and State Banking Commissioner James, of Pikeville. No action was taken by the commission.

COMMUNITY CLUBS IN JACKSON COUNTY

Tyner, Ky., Sept. 6.—Community clubs organized by the extension division of the Kentucky College of Agriculture at Lexington and County Agent W. R. Reynolds, bid fair to play an important part in bringing about better farms and homes in Jackson county. Mr. Reynolds says. Fifty-six of them recently were organized in one week. They will adopt definite lines of home and farm work to be carried out in their respective communities under the guidance of local leaders who will be selected to direct the work.

IS INSTRUCTED TO ENFORCE SCHOOL LAWS

W. A. Johnson, who has been appointed truant officer of the county schools, has been on the job since the opening of the first school in the county and says he intends to see that the school law is enforced, as his instructions from State Superintendent Colvin are to fine every offender. Mr. Johnson says that parents are urged to see that their children are in their places every day. Quite a number have already been fined, as delinquents are found every day without a satisfactory excuse.

Full details have not as yet been received here of the accident.

POOL LEADERS PLAN NATIONAL CAMPAIGN

Lexington, Sept. 5.—Tobacco co-operative associations in all parts of the country will be represented by their executives, secretaries, counsel and warehouse directors at a meeting to be held some time this fall, either in Lexington or Louisville.

The meeting will be in the nature of a conference to discuss the problems of kindred interests such as taxes, possible adverse legislation against the tobacco industry, farm conditions over the country and other items of interest to farmers who are also tobacco growers.

The conference is being planned by President and General Manager James C. Stone, Judge Robert W. Bingham and Aaron Sapiro, general counsel of most of the tobacco co-operatives who has had a part in the organization of all of them, including the new ones in Wisconsin and Connecticut. The leaders of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association, and on September 18, these delegates will meet and elect district directors of the association.

The Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association has just completed the first year of its existence. Although figures have not been made public, officials of the association stated that a much better price was obtained for tobacco than under the old auction system. The tobacco is sold by sample at the offices of the association here instead of by auction on loose leaf warehouse floors.

The polls for election of delegates to the district meetings will be opened at 8 o'clock on the morning of September 16, and will be closed at 4 p. m. Members will vote by ballot and may vote either in person or by mail, but mail ballots must be in the polling place before the polls close.

Candidates for delegates were nominated in meetings held in the court house of each county on Saturday, September 2. Twice as many candidates were named as there are delegates to be elected.

Each county chose one delegate for each million pounds or major fraction of pooled tobacco produced in 1921.

On September 18, the elected delegates will meet in the court house in the county in each district which produced the largest amount of pooled tobacco in 1921 and will elect a district director to serve for the next year.

CITIZENS' COMMITTEE TO MEET SATURDAY

Squire Jones and County Road Engineer J. G. Baxter were ordered to look over the Keppeler-Riven-Whitlock road and report its condition to the court at its next meeting.

The Poosey Ridge pike which has been undergoing repair was accepted by the court.

County Clerk W. B. Turley was ordered to notify the Standard Printing Co., that the bill against the county for the special registration books would be rejected. The meeting was a short one as there was very little business transacted.

JEALOUSY CAUSE OF DOUBLE TRAGEDY

(By Associated Press)

Cincinnati, Sept. 6.—Luther F. Violett, 33, shot and killed his wife, Bertha, 35, at their home here last night. He died today from a wound inflicted in his right temple after he shot Mrs. Violett. Jealousy was the cause of the shooting. Violett was a traveling salesman. Police say the couple are parents of four children, two living with their grandmother, Mrs. L. F. Violett, at Paris, Ky.

Political Announcements

We are authorized to announce
RALPH GILBERT
as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress from the 8th Congressional District, subject to the action of the Democratic primary in August, 1922.

Father Neptune seems to be taking an active interest in the naval disarmament program, having scrapped a dreadnaught each for France and Chile during the past week.

"Harding Weighs Strike Problem," says a headline. Well, he has a long weight to go.

It certainly is comforting though to see Stephens kick the everlasting tar out of Vardaman in Mississippi. If Georgia would kick Tom Watson into the middle of next week some folks would begin to suspect that these southern democrats were returning to normalcy.

LaFollette appears to have made a football out of Dr. Gannfield, former president of Centre who essayed to win at politics up in Wisconsin. But then Gannfield didn't have Bo McMillan or Red Roberts to lead the attack for him.

The row over location of the new Western Normal School is another evidence that verifies the Daily Register's contention some time ago that no more normal schools are needed. If half the money that the state will be required to spend on establishment and maintenance of the new schools were used to enlarge the normals at Richmond and Bowling Green, there would be ample accommodations for all who desire to take the teachers' training courses offered.

Congressman Barkley says he expects to run for governor next year. So do some dozen or so other candidates, if the booms their friends are giving them amount to anything. Kentucky Democrats ought to be able to make selection of a really high class candidate if an old-fashioned party convention is held. Another primary in which only a few professional politicians with nothing to do but "run" while drawing their salaries from the people, and with probably a third of the voters taking part, would be a farce this year. The Daily Register believes in the people making their choice, but they have shown for some time past that they are not interested in mixing up in a "rich man's primary." And this seems one time when every consideration of expediency and good of the party calls for a council of wisdom such as a convention should assure.

MORGAN HUGHES TELLS OF FARMS IN EUROPE

(By Associated Press)
Lexington, Ky., Sept. 5.—Morgan O. Hughes, until recently a member of the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station staff, who is now on an extensive tour through England, Scotland, Italy, France, Germany, and other European countries, is enjoying a trip filled with many new experiences and thrills, according to frequent communications being received from him by his friends at the station.

Learning many values from one country to the other is proving to be one of the chief difficulties of the trip, says Mr. Hughes.

Mr. Hughes is well known throughout Kentucky, his Warren county farm having been written up by one of the leading farm papers of the country several years ago as best one in the state. He also has been connected with a number of projects launched in the state for the benefit of farmers. He will leave Hamburg, Germany, on the steamer Mongolia for the return trip to this county about September 16, according to the most recent letter from him.

Writing from London soon after the start of his tour and at a time when Kentuckians were complaining of the heat, he reported extremely cool weather that made an overcoat feel comfortable.

An 800 mile trip through England and Scotland revealed sights that were beyond expectations, he wrote. Despite the fact that farming in England seems slower in its method than in this country, he reported good farming with fine crops was common.

After arriving in Paris, Mr. Hughes, together with Mrs. Hughes, who is accompanying him, visited the world war battlefields after which he wrote that the devastation was beyond description. Rheims, with a population of 120,000, has only 80 houses remaining and only 20 that are not damaged, he wrote. Some of the world's most beautiful buildings located in that city also were badly damaged, but were being restored at the time Mr. and Mrs. Hughes were there, he added.

A trip of 120 miles into the country from Paris revealed more good farming and fine crops similar to those that had been seen in England, he wrote in a later communication. A total of 15 days were spent in France following the 13 days that had been in England.

Land values are considerably lower in the vicinity of Paris than near the large cities in America, Mr. Hughes said in another letter. "It could have bought good land within 25 or 30 miles of Paris for from $100 to $125 an acre," he wrote.

While farming in Italy did not reach the excellence of that in England, Scotland and France, the city of Rome with its churches and old ruins proved especially interesting and wonderful, he wrote in a letter from that city.

Leaving Rome, Mr. and Mrs. Hughes were scheduled to visit Naples, Florence, Venice, and Milan, during the next two weeks, after which they were to journey to Oberammergau, Munich, Vienna, Dresden, Berlin, and Hamburg, from which city they were planning to sail September 16. If conditions permitted, they were planning to go from Hamburg to Denmark for a few days.

Mr. Hughes is recognized as a close observer of agricultural conditions and a capable critic of their significance. In view of the fact that he probably will join the experiment station staff upon his return, his observations of farming methods in Europe are expected to prove of considerable value to farmers in this state since they undoubtedly will be presented from time to time in connection with his work.

Storm warnings are being sent by radio to ships at sea within a range of shore stations along the British coast.

TEACHERS AGAINST PHELPS AND DAWSON

The Kentucky School News contained the following article in which every school teacher and every friend of education will be interested:

Lilburn Phelps has received the Republican nomination for Appellate Judge from the Third District. One plank of his platform was "Education." He does not define the term, but we presume that he means to vote for a man who has helped to defeat the second amendment, thereby causing thousands of teachers to work on salaries ranging from $45 to $75. Now it is said that Attorney General Dawson will ask the Republicans to nominate him for Governor. We are reliably informed that he not only helped to defeat the amendments but that he did everything in his power to have Governor Morrow veto the bill creating the summer schools. For these reasons a number of leading Republican educators say they will do everything in their power against both of these candidates. When all the educators have such convictions and the courage to express and stand by those convictions Kentucky will begin to come into her own educationally.

I am the L&N

I speak as one with age and strength to the people of a great country, rich and wonderful in years. Seventy-two years ago, men and women of the South, I was born among you. For seventy-two years I have been constantly with you—with you every minute without an instant's lapse of time. For seventy years I have labored with you, arm in arm, to bring prosperity to the Southland.

Seventy years ago we were young together, the South and I, but we have grown apace; each sharing the weal and woe of a common fate. For seventy years my interests have been wedded to the destiny of a vast country. And those years have fructified my aim.

Today, fair Southland, you have an enviable place in the nation, rich and pulsant with life and happiness and plenty. Today, I am a Pioneer of the Southland, a substantial, reliable railroad, complete and up-to-date, that winds its ribbons of steel across 5,000 miles of your territory, and every instant stands ready to give you, people of the South, unexcelled transportation service to both local and distant points.

We have served each other in a common interest. And we shall continue to serve each other. I believe in your country—have believed in it for over seventy years. I feel sure of your future. That is why I have invested over three hundred and thirty million dollars in your fair land.

I believe in the people of the South; believe in their honesty, fair-mindedness, and I request that they continue to join me, as they have for over seventy years, as co-workers in the great cause of the Southland.

One Method of Becoming a Merchant Prince

There was an old geezer,
And he had a lot of sense;
He started up in business
On a dollar'n eighty cents.
The dollar was for stock
And the eighty cents for an ad.
Which brought his $3 in a day,
By dad!

Well, he bought more goods
And a little more space,
And he played that system
With a smile on his face.
The customers flocked
To his two by four,
Soon he had to hustle
For a regular store.

Up on the square,
Where the people pass,
He gobbled up a corner
That was all plate glass.
He fixed up the windows
With the best he had,
And told them all about it
In a half-page ad.

He soon had 'em coming
And never, never quit,
And he wouldn't cut down
On his ads one jit.
And he's kept things humming
In the town ever since.
And everybody calls him
The Merchant Prince.
Some say it's luck,
But that's all bunk,
He was doing business
When times were punk!
People have to purchase,
And the geezer was wise—
He knew the way to get 'em
WAS TO ADVERTISE.

ROT RESISTENT TOBACCO BEST

(By Associated Press)
Flemingsburg, Ky., Sept. 6.—Twenty-five Fleming county tobacco growers who are co-operating with the extension division of the College of Agriculture at Lexington are obtaining striking results in demonstrations which they are conducting on their farms to show the value of root rot resistant strains of burley tobacco developed at the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station. County Agent H. F. McKenney says. The demonstrations are considered especially significant in view of the fact that uneven stands of tobacco which result in the root rot cause leaf growers heavy losses.

Results already obtained in the demonstrations indicate that the root rot resistant varieties are a marked improvement over the varieties commonly grown. Mr. McKenney said. Plants from the resistant varieties are more uniform than those from common varieties even on disease-free land, although the most striking results are to be found in fields of tobacco grown on diseased land, he added. Results in these cases show that resistant varieties are far superior to the common ones, he said.

A wristlet that catches the dripping water has been invented to keep the arms of window washers dry.

Known for some years to exist, deposits of oil shale in Bulgaria will be exploited in the near future.

The $8,500 power plant on Yellow Creek near Middlesboro, was burned Tuesday.

FOOTBALL OUTLOOK AT MADISON GOOD

Madison High School has rather bright prospects for a football team this fall. It will have added strength from Model Hi, which will send many of its players to Madison after being abolished. Ten of the men who were on the squad last year will be out in uniform trying to make the '22 eleven. Coach Lassiter will return from his vacation September 8 to get the boys lined up for the season. He expects to take them to Boonesboro for a week's training before the grind starts at Richmond. New uniforms will be here in time for the first game. They will be solid purple jerseys with white numerals on the back. The stockings will also be purple. Last year Coach Lassiter had a great deal of green material with which to deal but whipped them into a first class team before the close of the season. He expects to have a rather heavy schedule this year and will give the local football fans some real games.

The old men who will play for Madison are Captain-elect James Allman, John Allman, William Bower, Joe Reeves, Chas. Hacker, Tevis Huguely, Harry Stone, Burnell Martin, Shirley Clouse, Ralph Gentry and Wells. Those who will be lost by graduation are Talton Stone, Marshall Hurst, Lafon Wilson, James Anderson, Frank Hacker, and J. L. Blevins. Many new men are expected to be out for the team, including some of Model's star performers.

The schedule is not complete, but three games have been arranged for sure. Midway will be here for a game October 6th; Lancaster here for a game October 20, and Paris will be played there October 27. Several other good games will be booked to be played in Richmond.

RAMEY URGES UNIFORM FEE

(By Associated Press)
Swampscott, Mass., Sept. 5.—Uniform commissions for insurance agents throughout country together with limitations as to the percentage of premiums companies may pay for new insurance, was urged here today by James F. Ramey, Insurance Commissioner of Kentucky, in an address before the 53d annual session of the National Convention of Insurance Commissioners. He was speaking during a discussion of a paper by Francis R. Stoddard, superintendent of insurance for New York. Mr. Ramey urged that steps be taken to secure "uniform commissions for the whole country with reservations." He said that he did not favor legislation where it can be avoided but that something should be done to cut down the cost of fire insurance.

S. S. WORKERS BEGIN CAMPAIGN

(By Associated Press)
Winchester, Ky., Sept. 6.—Plans are being made here for an intensive campaign to secure at least 500 delegates from the city and county to attend the State Sunday School Convention, which will be held here October 3 to 5, inclusive. A registration committee of 25 members has been appointed and arrangements made for a mass meeting in a local church.

Preparations for the convention which already have been outlined, include the opening of headquarters here from which the campaign for delegates may be directed two or three weeks before the convention. It was suggested that an office with stenographic help be provided and the aid of the officers of the Kentucky Sunday School Association be enlisted.

M. T. McElowney, president of the state association, M. C. Redwine, president of the Clark county Sunday School Association, and Prof. B. T. Spencer, formed a speakers committee which carried the message of the state convention to the Powell county Sunday School Convention recently. Campaigns in the interest of the state meeting have been planned for a number of the other counties adjoining Clark.

A canvassing committee composed of 25 leading Sunday School workers of Winchester, and the county named at the recent Clark county Sunday School Association convention and already has begun to function.
